Exceptional Destination Management for conference and event planners

Connections is the UK based sales and marketing office for a select group of world class Destination Management Companies (DMCs) who operate global events and conferences.

Our philosophy is simple; we only partner with the world's best DMCs who have an established and proven reputation for excellence in their destination.

To ensure all our clients receive the highest standard of service, We maintain a definitive set of criteria against which we benchmark our Destination Partners.

Connections provides clients with ongoing practical assistance and support including....

- UK point of contact for ease of communication.
- Supporting clients with a first-hand knowledge of the destination.
- Providing an impartial view on hotels and venues.
- Saving clients research time by providing destination information.
- Assisting clients in preparing proposals and securing new business.
- Assisting you with your client pitches in person if requested
